

Shortlisted Candidates for the Best Use of Certified Timber Prize

The nine projects pre-selected for the World Architecture Festival's Best Use of Certified Timber Prize, supported by PEFC. The jury will hear presentations by each entry on 30 November 2018, at WAF in Amsterdam. The winner will be presented with their prize at a Gala Dinner later that day.

Project name: Macquarie University
Architect name: Architectus
Category: Higher Education and Research
Country: Australia

Project name: NTNU Gjøvik University
Architect name: Reiulf Ramstad Arkitekter
Category: Higher Education and Research
Country: Gjøvik, Norway

Project name: International House Sydney
Architect name: Tzannes
Category: Office
Country: Sydney, Australia

Project name: Royal Academy of Music Theatre & Recital Hall
Architect name: Ian Ritchie Architects Ltd.
Category: Higher Education and Research
Country: London, UK

Project name: Belarusian Memorial Chapel
Architect name: Tszwai So, Spheron Architects
Category: Religion
Country: London, UK

Project name: Save the Children Expo Milano 2015
Architect name: AOUMM S.r.l S.t.p.
Category: Civic and Community
Country: Italy

Project name: Krakani Lumi Camp
Architect name: Taylor and Hinds Architects
Category: Hotel and Leisure
Country: Tasmania, Australia

Project name: Zallinger Back to the Origins
Architect name: noa* network of architecture
Category: Hotel and Leisure
Country: Southtyrol, Italy

Project name: Mulan Weichang Visitor Centre
Architect name: Zhang Hai'ao(HDD)
Category: Hotel and Leisure
Country: Mongolia, China